TARGET GROUP

- » Policy makers
- » Energy managers
- » Manufacturers
- » Building Consultants
- » Contractors
- » Designers
- » Planners
- » Supermarket retailers
- » Associations
- » Test laboratories and technical centres

SUMMARY

Refrigeration2030 is a hands-on, forward-looking seminar programme that brings additional value to manufacturers, building consultants, contractors, designers, planners, energy managers, public policy makers, supermarket retailers, associations and everyone else interested in the latest and upcoming developments concerning Industrial and Commercial Refrigeration, Process Cooling, Food Cold Chain technologies. It incorporates the European Union 2030 targets and elaborates how technologies and legislation could adapt and evolve until then.

Amongst others, participants have the possibility to gain in-depth and valuable insight into

- » Latest and upcoming energy efficient and clean technological developments,
- » Technological and market trends with a focus on France,
- » Refrigerant alternatives in line with latest measures to reduce F-Gas emissions,
- » Developments in legislation and standards in the refrigeration area.

DATE AND TIME

Wednesday, 17 May 2016, 10:00-16:00 (CET)

VENUE

Uniclimate, rue de l'Amiral Hamelin 11-17, 75016 Paris, France

PARTICIPATION FEE

60 EUR

SUPPORTER

Interclima+Elec<sub>hb</sub>

Interclima+Elec<sub>hb</sub> is where all the sector's decision-makers and installers come together to choose partners and seek solutions in energy efficiency, renewable energies, thermal comfort and smart solutions for residential and commercial buildings.
